Instagram Strategy

Our primary visual discovery platform

Content Formats

Carousels (40%)

Restaurant guides, area food maps, 'Top 5' lists, step-by-step recipes, event recaps. 5–10 slides with consistent brand template. First slide must hook — use bold text + appetising imagery.

Reels (30%)

30–60 second food reviews, behind-the-scenes at restaurants, 'POV: finding halal food at...', trending audio with halal twist. Always caption — many watch on mute.

Single Posts (15%)

Beautiful food photography, quote cards, announcement graphics, user-submitted photos (with credit). Strong caption with CTA.

Stories (15%)

Daily — polls, quizzes, 'this or that', quick tips, reshare UGC, countdown to events, link stickers to blog/listings. Use interactive stickers for engagement.

Visual Style Guidelines

- Photography: Warm, natural lighting. Overhead and 45-degree food shots. Vibrant but not over-saturated.
- Brand overlay: Emerald (#047857) and Gold (#D4A017) accents on text overlays. Manrope font only.
- Grid aesthetic: Alternate between carousels, single images, and Reels for a balanced, professional grid.
- Watermark: Small HumbleHalal logo in corner of all original imagery.
- User content: Always credit with @mention. Reshare with branded Story frame.

Caption Formula

Hook (first line grabs attention) + Value (info, tip, or story) + CTA (save, share, comment, visit link) + Hashtags (see Hashtag Strategy page)

Example: "This nasi padang changed my lunch game forever. ■ [Review] Save for your next Geylang run!"

TikTok Strategy

Short-form video for viral halal discovery

Video Content Types

Food Reviews (40%)

Quick, honest, personality-driven reviews. 'Is this worth the hype?' format. Show the food, give a rating, keep it real. 15–60 seconds.

Hidden Gems (25%)

POV: 'I found the best [food] in [area]'. Discovery-led content that makes viewers feel like insiders. Use trending sounds.

Halal Travel (15%)

'What I ate in [city] as a Muslim traveller'. Montage format with text overlays. Airport prayer room tours.

Community/Lifestyle (10%)

Day-in-the-life, Ramadan routines, event vlogs, 'things only SG Muslims understand'. Relatable, shareable.

Educational (10%)

'How to check if a restaurant is MUIS certified', platform tutorials, halal myths debunked. Informative but entertaining.

TikTok Best Practices

- Hook in the first 2 seconds — text overlay or surprising visual to stop the scroll
- Use trending audio but always add a halal/SG twist to stand out
- Captions/subtitles mandatory — most viewers watch without sound
- Post 3–4 times per week, prioritising 7–10pm SGT for max reach
- Reply to comments with video responses to boost algorithm visibility
- Use TikTok's native editing tools (CapCut) for platform-native feel
- Cross-post best performers to Instagram Reels (re-edit without TikTok watermark)

Growth Hack

Engage with halal food content from other creators daily. Comment genuinely. Stitch/Duet popular food reviews with our take. Collaborate with micro-influencers (5K–50K) in the SG Muslim community.

Facebook & LinkedIn

Community building and B2B presence

Facebook Strategy

Facebook serves our 30–45 age segment and community group engagement. It's our best platform for event promotion and longer-form discussions.

- Page: Share blog posts, event listings, and curated content from Instagram. Always include a direct link.
- Groups: Create 'HumbleHalal Community' group for user discussions, recommendations, and reviews sharing.
- Events: Use Facebook Events for all community events, bazaars, and workshops. Cross-promote from page.
- Messenger: Auto-reply with link to HumbleHalal search. No manual DM management needed at launch.
- Ads: Boost top-performing organic posts. Target Malay-Muslim Singaporeans, halal food interest, 25–45.

LinkedIn Strategy

LinkedIn targets business partnerships, F&B owners, sponsors, and positions HumbleHalal as a serious platform in the halal economy. Lower frequency, higher quality.

- Thought leadership: Singapore halal market insights, industry data, platform milestones and growth metrics.
- Partnership announcements: New business partners, sponsor spotlights, collaborations with community orgs.
- Behind-the-scenes: Building a halal tech platform, founder journey, engineering and product decisions.
- Industry content: Halal economy trends, Muslim consumer insights, F&B technology innovation.
- Frequency: 1–2 posts per week. Long-form articles monthly. Engage with halal industry professionals daily.

Ask HumbleHalal

Monthly Q&A Story — answer community questions about halal dining, MUIS certification, etc.

Content Production Workflow

- 1. Ideation — Check content calendar, trending topics, community requests, seasonal moments
- 2. Research — Visit location / verify info / check MUIS database / gather assets
- 3. Create — Shoot/design content. Apply brand templates. Write caption using formula.
- 4. Review — Check brand consistency, MUIS status accuracy, spelling, hashtags, links
- 5. Schedule — Use scheduling tool (Later or Buffer). Optimal time slots per platform.
- 6. Engage — Monitor comments within first hour. Respond to all DMs within 24h.

Hashtag Strategy

Maximising discoverability across platforms

Use a strategic mix of branded, niche, and broad hashtags. Instagram allows up to 30 — we use 15–20 for optimal reach. TikTok uses 3–5 targeted hashtags.

Branded Hashtags (Always Use)

#HumbleHalal #EverythingHalalOnePlatform #DiscoverHalalSG

UGC tag: #MyHumbleHalal — encourage community to tag their halal discoveries

Niche Hashtags (Select per content)

#HalalSG #HalalFoodSG #SGHalalFood #MUISCertified #HalalSingapore #SGMuslim #MalayFood #SGMakan #HalalCafe #HalalBurger #HalalRamen #HalalBBQ #HalalCatering #SGHalalTravel #MuslimFriendly

Broad Hashtags (1–3 per post for reach)

#SGFood #SingaporeFood #FoodSG #SGEats #BurppleSG #Foodie #SGFoodie

Avoid: generic tags like #food #yummy — too broad, no engagement value

Seasonal Hashtags

- Ramadan: #RamadanSG #IftarSG #SGBazaar #RamadanFood #SahurSpots
- Hari Raya: #HariRaya #HariRayaAidilfitri #RayaFood #OpenHouseSG
- Travel: #HalalTravel #MuslimTravel #HalalTrip #HalalFoodAbroad

Community Management

Building trust through authentic engagement

Community management is where brand loyalty is built. Every interaction should reflect our personality: warm, knowledgeable, and genuinely helpful — like a friend who always knows where to eat.

Response Guidelines

- Respond to all comments within 4 hours during business hours (9am–9pm SGT)
- Reply to DMs within 24 hours. Use templates for FAQs but personalise each response.
- Tone: Friendly, warm, use Singlish naturally (lah, leh, shiok) but keep it readable
- Always thank users for recommendations, reviews, and UGC. Credit with @mention.
- For negative feedback: acknowledge, empathise, offer to help. Never argue publicly.
- For halal status questions: always direct to MUIS website for official verification. Never guarantee.
- Restaurant complaints: 'Thanks for flagging — we'll look into this!' Then notify the listing owner.

UGC (User-Generated Content) Strategy

- Encourage with #MyHumbleHalal tag — feature the best submissions weekly
- Monthly 'Community Pick' — highlight a user-submitted restaurant recommendation
- Repost UGC to Stories with branded frame. Ask permission before reposting to feed.
- Run quarterly photo challenges (e.g., 'Best Nasi Lemak Shot', 'Prettiest Halal Cafe')
- Community reviewers programme: invite top contributors to early access and events

Crisis Protocol

If a halal status issue goes viral: pause scheduled posts, draft a factual response, verify with MUIS, post a transparent update. Never speculate. Speed matters but accuracy matters more.

Metrics & KPIs

Measuring what matters

Track these KPIs weekly to understand growth, engagement quality, and traffic contribution. Focus on engagement rate and website clicks over vanity metrics like follower count.
